RECONAFRICA DONATES TOWARDS COVID-19 VACCINATION

ReconAfrica through its Namibian subsidiary company, Reconnaissance Energy Namibia, donated N$ 15 million to Namibia, towards government vaccination efforts on 21 June 2021, in response to a call for more corporate support in the fight against Covid-19 by the Prime Minister Dr. Saara Kuugongelwa-Amadhila.

“Our hearts go out to the people of Namibia during these extremely difficult times, and we hope these donation will add some energy to our collective battle to beat Covid-19 and alleviate the effects and losses your country is enduring”, said Mr. Williams Scot Evans, ReconAfrica’s Chief Executive Officer. The donation is earmarked for the procurement, distribution and administration of Covid-19 vaccines and other related expenditures.

Commending ReconAfrica for the support, the Executive Director in the Office of the Prime Minister, Mr. I-Ben Natangwe Nashandi said the Office of the Prime Minister expresses its appreciation to ReconAfrica for partnering with the government to acquire vaccines, which is a necessity to save lives. He further, urged all Namibians to embrace all health measures, including taking vaccines to build herd immunity for Namibia.

ReconAfrica, is the holder of Petroleum Exploration License Number 73 (PEL 73) issued by the government of Namibia and is currently undertaking oil and gas exploration in the Okavango East and West regions.
